From Their Majesties

Unto all Outlanders who come by this letter know that We, Maelgwn and Lillian, King and Queen of these fair lands are well pleased with Our noble warriors, fencers, artisans, marshals, dancers, and waterbearers that make the long journey to Atenveldt. As We write this, all are in final preparations for War and the final point score is yet unknown to Us. We fear not for defeat, and have found a true joy in Our hearts at the Outlands people coming together in brotherhood and support for each other.

With Estrella fast behind Us, another war looms on the horizon. Join Us as We travel to the Kingdom of Meridies for Gulf War VIII. When Trimaris does battle against the Kingdom of Ansteorra, We will join them on the field and spread legends of Our Mighty Kingdom to the far reaches of the Knowne Worlde. Our subject, Lady Moyra MacColla of Bofharrach with her noble steed Wyndyl, will compete in the Lancer's Challenge at Gulf Wars as Our Outlands Equestrian Champion. May she ride to Victory for Our Glorious Kingdom and the honor of the Crown! We ask all who travel there to contact Comtesse AnneAliz that she may better plan Our encampment.

Officers prepare! Stag's Con will be sponsored by the Barony of Dragonsspine on the second weekend of June. We encourage all officers to attend this event. It provides a unique opportunity to share information both in scheduled discussions and in spontaneous question and answer sessions. With two days this year, the event will be even more informative and fun.

As the winter festivities come to an end, sadly We know it is time to find Our successors. We invite all to join Us at Crown Tournament in the shire of Drygestan on the first weekend of March. Special ceremonies are planned to make this a memorable Tournament for combatants and spectators alike. A delicious feast is being prepared by Earl Cathyn and We look forward to sampling results of his culinary skills while reveling at the success of Our Heirs.

Wherever you travel, Outlands drums have been heard on the battlefield and under the starlit skyes. It is a mark of Our Kingdom.

From The Kingdom Seneschal

Your Kingdom Seneschal sends greetings unto the good gentles of our Glorius Outlands

As you read this, the Estrella War is but a fond memory and thoughts have turned to the selection of the Heirs to the Throne of the Outlands. I encourage all of you to travel to Their Majesties' Shire of Drygestan for Crown Tournament as it promises to be a magnificent event! I plan to hold a Kingdom Officers meeting at this event, so listen for the announcement or contact me.

Seneschals and Kingdom Officers, thank you for getting your Doomsdays in! I know this is a stressful time of year, and I appreciate all your efforts. Oh, populace of the Outlands, you have a truly remarkable group of Kingdom Officers; Officers, you have a most wondrous populace whom you serve.

The Society for Creative Anachronism is a unique collection of individuals brought together by their similar interests. As with all organizations, there is a need for a certain amount of organization which is provided by those who fill the offices in local, Kingdom, and Society levels. The people who are adept at serving in these positions often serve not for glory but because they are needed. Thank them. Those who are adept with the sword, epee, or bow practice their art not for glory, but because they are able. Thank them. Those who are adept in the arts and sciences do so not create wonders for glory, but because they are able. Thank them. Indeed, glory may come to those who do what they are able, and indeed, that is as it should be. The Outlands is fortunate to have such talented gentles in its boundaries and we are truly fortunate. Serve as you are able and we will grow stronger. All service, whether as an officer, a warrior, an artisan, craftsman, or a reveller in the glory of the middle ages and renaissance, is appreciated. It is what makes our Society work. Long live the Outlands!

Congratulations to our own Maestra Francesca, who will take her position on the Board of Directors at the April, 1999 meeting in Philadelphia. I am sure she will serve the Society to the best of her ability.

In May, the Kingdom Exchequer, THL Bjorn, and I will attend the Known World Kingdom Seneschal & Exchequer Symposium. If you have concerns that need to be addressed by the Seneschals and Exchequers, please contact us before the first of May so we may take your concerns to the symposium with us.

Plan to attend Outlands Arts & Science Collegium in Their Majesties' Barony of al-Barran on April 10-11 and Coronation in Their Majesties' Barony of Unser Hafen on May 8-9. Also, plan for Stag's Con on June 12-13...This will be a two-day event in a relatively centrally located site within the Kingdom. Details to follow!

Please remember that bids for the Fall Crown Tournament are due in to THLd Adam the Persistent by March 15.

Travel safely in these last days of winter and look forward to Spring and new growth.

In service,

Mistress Coemri nEithne

From the Kingdom Earl Marshal

Greetings Warriors,

Estrella War is over and I would like to thank all the artisans, cooks, waterbearers, list officers, and marshals that gave us the support to make this an enjoyable conflict. The archers, rapier fighters, and heavy weapons fought with honor, courage, and much skill.

Special thanks to Their Royal Majesties, Maelgwn and Lillian, and to Sir Jochen for making it possible for me to fight beside my king.

My warrant as Earl Marshal expires this month and it is time for someone else to bring new ideas and enthusiasm to the office. I will continue to work the office until my replacement is comfortable with the responsibility.

Equestrians, please send me reports and commentary directly until such time as an Equestrian Marshal is appointed by TRM.

Thanks for all the help from everyone. Fight well and have fun

From the Minister of Arts and Sciences

WE NEED TEACHERS FOR THE A&S COLLEGIUM ON APRIL 10-11TH!! CALL ME OR REGISTER TO TEACH ON THE WEB PAGE!

The Kingdom A&S Collegium will be held in al-Barran on the second weekend in April. I would still really like to do some type of Medieval school, so for this one event only, we are treating the classes as "apprentice" training.

We have selected ten topics and would like for the classes to revolve around those ten topics only. We chose ten because that is the amount of space that we have. The topics are Brewing and Infusing, Scriptorium, Glass and Metalwork, Warfare, Textiles, Dance, Vocal/Instrumental Performance, Games and Cooking.

The Cooks challenge at the A&S Collegium in Windkeep was so successful that we decided to try that formula on the rest of the classes. The classes will be "hands on" but the point will be to make food for the feast or prepare something to sing, dance, speak or otherwise perform at the feast. The other things should be either worn (as in textiles) or given as largesse to the Crown (textiles, metalwork, promissory scrolls, brewed concoctions, etc.) either that day or in the near future. So please orient your class towards something to be completed that day if possible. I will need to know what you would like to teach by March 31st. If you have any questions please call or write to me. I have been bad about checking my e-mail but have resolved to do better this year. I am very excited about the class format but it will only work with your assistance.

Humble Servant to the Crown and People of the Outlands,

Contesâ Zinoviia Mikulina'doch Korabelnikova zhena
but you can call me MINA!

P.S. Would someone from the FLATTENED FOX please contact me concerning the teaching of period games?

From the Marshal of Fence

Unto the populace of the Grand and Glorious Outlands does the Marshal of Fence send greetings

I hope everyone had fun at Estrella! Big, whopping THANK YOUS to everyone who helped organize the war effort! Specifically, to Mistress Elenfea for the baldric coordination, Lady Arcadia and Blue Company for the "playbooks", Generalissimo Jean-Eric and his commanders, Don Govanen and Lady Carola, and to any one who marshalled, assisted in set-up or take-down, or helped to look after me in any way.

Here is the list of the local rapier marshals. If I did not include your group it is because I am unaware of your marshal, and have not received any reports from them.

al-Barran--Don Govanen
Caer Galen--Lord Talon (I need reports!!!)
Caerthe--Lady Rivka
Citadel of the Southern Pass--Sir Konrad (I need reports!!!)
Dragonsspine--Lord Random
Hawks Hollow--Lord Eoin
Nahrun Kabirun--Lady Carola
Unser Hafen--Lord Robert Edward Stewart (I need reports!!!)
Windkeep--Griffin

I hope to see all of you at A Sworded Affaire, on April 24th!

In Service,

Baroness Aindrea MacCullaich

From the Kingdom Chamberlain

Greetings! I am Mistress Celine Jane dHermain, your new kingdom Chamberlain. First of all let me say how very happy I am to serve in this office, and give my thanks to my predecessor Baroness Emma of Essex for staying on as my deputy until I find another (but who indeed could replace Emma?) Perhaps I should begin by explaining what the Chamberlain is/does. The office of the Chamberlain is a lesser office of state in the Kingdom of the Outlands, & reports directly to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and is responsible for the care and maintenance Kingdom regalia; ordering new regalia made, repairs, and assisting as a starting point for those who would wish to serve their kingdom by making regalia. Regalia is the properties of the crown of the Kingdom of the Outlands, not property the persons sitting on the thrones but the crown itself. Items of regalia include; The Crowns, Kingdom banners, the Great Seal of the Outlands, The King's sword, the Scepters and all the various champion, guard and court tabards and favors. Also items used more personally but the crown; the royal feast gear, tablecloths and other much used items.

If you or your local group have an interest in making or donating regalia please feel free to visit the web-site at: http://www.unm.edu/~selene/ or contact your Outlands Chamberlain with any questions. I must admit that email is the preferable format. I can be reached at the following address:

Proposed Corpora Revision

In October 1996, a revision was made to Corpora IV.A.2.d. which detailed the circumstances in which officers might take part in Crown or Coronet lists. The section currently reads: "No Society Officer may serve as Crown or Coronet during their tenure in office. In order to fight or be fought for in a Crown or Coronet Lists, the officer must have served a minimum of one year in that office and must have an appointed deputy, approved by the Board, who is ready and willing to accept all responsibilities for that office. Committing to become a Crown or Coronet will be considered a resignation from office." In a prior section of Corpora, the Society Officers are defined as the officers listed in Corpora sections IV.B through IV.H

Recently, several positions within the corporate structure were separated from the Board (President, Secretary, and Treasurer), and other positions have been added to the structure (for example, the positions created by the communications department restructuring). These positions are not covered by the above Corpora section.

It is proposed that Corpora IV.A.2.d be revised to read "No Society Officer or Corporate Officer may serve..."

Please send your comments no later than June 1, 1999 to SCA Inc., Corpora Comments, Box 360789, Militias CA 95036.

XXI Annual Interkingdom Archery Competitions

Well, the 21st season of the IKAC has come to an end and it's time to announce the winners! All the archers listed below should be very proud of themselves. They represented their Kingdoms well and the number of scores that came in this year kept me very busy. Remember, the Southern hemisphere's season is under way and the Northern hemisphere's season starts April 1. If you're the archer-crat of an upcoming event that falls before the official start of the season, send me a written request to have the IKAC scores counted as official. Please note my new e-mail address. I look forward to another competative season!

From the Outlands Estrella Target Archery Representative

Thanks must go out to all who helped me coordinate the Outlands bit of the Target Archery at Estrella: First to Their Majesties for consulting on the Champions Challenge and allowing me to do this job, to Ian Lindsay MacRae for his constant encouragement and not letting me quit, to Peregrine and Ailinn for their roles as Archer General and consultation -- Ailinn for on-site help as well and Hawks Hollow's shoot, Eric for consulting and Caerthe's shoot, Lady Gwendolyn MacIver for painting such beautiful Archer Targets which we proceeded to shoot holes in, Kovach for being quick with his knife and duct tape to tame the cardboard for the targets, Damian d'Antioch for providing all the cardboard, acquiring a great price to laminate our wand targets at Reliable Reproductions and for all his suggestions along the way, to all the archers who have made comments and suggestions and helped us write-up a great new scenario for the Archery War Point and rules for the various shoots, to Fahlah who nick-picked the grammer and had to put up with Kovach and I while we flung cardboard, etc. around, and finally to any one else I forgot to mention -- Thanks! Thanks also to all who helped out at Estrella on the ranges as marshals, list persons, and/or runners.

Mistress Kathryn of Iveragh
Outlands Target Archery Co-Representative for Estrella

From the Kingdom Chronicler

As I prepare to head down to Crown Tournament, I have been reflecting on my time in this office. The Crown Tournament dates represent, approximately, the six month point since I took office. It just doesn't seem like that long. It's been a fun ride so far, and I don't see it changing any time soon, because you, the populace, are just too great to work with.

I have gotten a lot of good feedback about the changes I have made to the Outlandish Herald so far. The 'At-a-glance' information at the top of each article seems to be a big hit with everyone. Knowing where the events are, when the site opens/closes, how to make checks payable, and now, alcohol status, all appear to be helping everyone. I also want to thank the autocrats of recent events. Since I begin running article event requirements on the inside back cover of the OH, I have had to make fewer requests for additional, mandatory information. On occasion, things still get forgotten, but by not having to make a phone call or electronic mail for every event cuts down on production time, and makes for a happier Kingdom Chronicler.

Speaking of production time, I would like to take this time to let the populace know that I will be streamlining the production cycle of the Outlandish Herald. I hear you already: "Again??" Yes, again. But this should be the last time, because my print company and I have hit on a good formula. Beginning with the May issue, all event articles will become due on the 25th of the month. Translated, this means that the April issue has a due date of February 24, while the May issue will have a due date of March 25, the June issue will have a due date of April 25, and so on. This will allow me plenty of time to put the issue together, and my printer enough time to get it back to me so I don't go crazy trying to get it ready to mail. I will continue to print the due dates for the next two months on the back cover of the OH so that they are easily found when the eternal question of 'When's my article due?' comes up.

I am still soliciting discussion and viewpoints on the issue of charging for event articles. Please feel free to E-mail me, send me a letter via the U.S. Postal Service, or just catch me at an event and sit and chat with me. I am always open to discussions and ideas on any topic, so feel free to contact me on any subject you desire, but the article issue is one that is very important for me to get as many thoughts as I can. If you are unsure what I'm talking about, please read my note from the February OH.

I thank you all again for all the fun and joy I'm having with this office, and I hope the next six months are as exciting as the last six have been.

I remain, in service to the Outlands,

Laird Duncan MacAllister

The Snow is gone and the Bows are dusted off, it is now time to look back and see just what happened on that fateful day in January. They call me Lord James the Small. It was a foggy day not like most other day, you could feel the tension in the air...ouch! Never mind it was an arrow from Bows in the Snow 2.

The tension was mounting as the day began and as the last brick was laid in place for the event, it started with people signing in. There were 30 archers on the field that day. Master Rhys Afalwyn, the 'Quack' shot, won just one of the many prizes in the Arcade shoot. And let us not forget the (un)lucky Laird Duncan MacAllister, the first casualty in the Shield shoot. Our condolences go out to his bereaving widow. One of the lucky ones was Lady Asta, who won the prize for the unluckiest archer. Alas, she could not hit her targets due to the tears in her eyes from the laughter in her heart. To her we say this: The road is a bumpy, so climb out of the ruts. The winner of the day was Lord Larke, the second time he was the winner of Bows in the Snow. However, the overall Winners of the Day were the happy people who joined us for the event, we give Thanks to those who participated. And to those who helped a hearty pat on the back.

And now for a history lesson. . .

This month marks the 27th Crown Tournament in the Kingdom of the Outlands (if my math is correct). I was perusing a back issue of the Outlandish Herald, at the request of the Crown Autocrat, Baroness Adina, for a map to the Crown Tourney site, when I came upon the following interesting tidbits:

This Spring Crown is being held in the Shire of Drygestan, while Spring Coronation is being held in the Barony of Unser Hafen. Six years ago, in A.S. XXVII (1993), Crown Tournament was held in the Shire of Drygestan, while Spring Coronation was held in, you guessed it, the Barony of Unser Hafen. In fact, this Spring Crown is being held at the same site as the Spring Crown of 1993. Duke Olaf and Duchess Jeanne were just completing their second reign as King and Queen of the Outlands. In hopes of both bringing a smile to some faces, and educating some about the Outlands' past, I have reproduced the tentative list of Crown Tournament entrants from April of 1993. See how many of them you recognize. Enjoy!

Crown Entrants from April AS XXVII (1993)

Don Alexandre Lerot d'Avigne
Lord Bjarni Kenhelm
Count Cyrred of Ashwood
Lord Gunther der Wanderer
Sir Hakon of Jorvik
Lord Jalut Gaston de Navarre
Sir Jurgan Peredurk
Sir Kragon of Land's End
Sir Lavan Longwalker
Jarl Leif Ivarsson
m'lord Maelgwn McCain
Sir Richard DeMaris
Sir Robert of the Mountains
Mistress Sarah de Montgomerie
Lord Taran O'Saoghair
Sir Thorsvald Valdkrig
Lord Vagn Olafsson
Lord William de Vallier

Lady Elizabeth O'Byrne
Lady Muireann MacRaghallach
Countess Morgana of Land's End
Lady Drahomera Jaroslavna
Lady Auralia d'Ouessant
Lady Katya Ana Sylvan
Lilliard Boudicea de Vorguilla
Mistress Sarah de Montgomerie
Lady Anastasia Angharad
Baroness Elisheva bat Simon ha-Levi
m'lady Eleria de l'Aquila
m'lady Kayla DeMaris
Mistress Elizabeth Freemountain
Sir Kragon of Land's End
Countess Monika von Zell
Lady Dona au Skarsten
m'lady Thora Red Hair
Lady Adrienne de Champagne

Now knowing the entrants from that Crown held in the Shire of Drygestan in A.S. XXVII, do you remember who emerged victorious to ascend the thrones of the Outlands in the Barony of Unser Hafen that May? If you guessed Jarl Leif Ivarsson and Baroness Elisheva bat Simon ha-Levi, you'd be absolutely correct. I hope this has been an interesting tidbit of history. If so, and you'd like to see them continue, please let me know, and I'll gladly peruse more back issues of the Outlandish Herald for historical tidbits.

'Contact Information' as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, address, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available.

Autocrats, please take notice of the article size constraints, and try to stay within them. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the three (3) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Kingdom Events (Crown, Coronation, A&S Competition/Collegium, and others as designated by the Crown) receive one (1) page in the publications prior to the event, and two (2) pages the month of the event. Non-Kingdom Events receive one-half (½) page in the publications prior to the event, and one (1) page the month of the event. Additional space may be purchased for any publication month at the current advertising rates. Current advertising rates are listed in the front of the Outlandish Herald. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication. The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (½) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article.
